Revenue appeal
No 7 of 1892-93

Appellant
Basave'gowda

On the 2d Dec
1881 the appellant-Basave'gowda presented a petition to the Amlda of Chikkanduranhalli stating that his father Chiche'gowda Patel of Hindaskere' was dead that at the time of his death the appellant was very young
that one Nanje'gowda a distant "dayadi" of deceased Chiche'gowda
falsely represented to the authorities that the deceased has no other heirs than himself
that the said Nanje'
gowda in this manner succeeded in getting the patels office registered in his name and that therefore the said Patel of Hindaskere' might be registered in the name of the appellant.

7-1-82

Thereupon an order
was passed that the Registry mentioned

Nanji Gonda as the son of deceased Chikki Gonda Patel and that the said Nanji Gonda
was accordingly doing the patel duties and that the appellants'
name was not mentioned in the Registers.

The said Nanji Gonda
died in the early part of 1891.

On the 10th April 1891
the appellant Basavi Gonda presented a petition to the Amildar of Nipani that Nanji Gonda was dead and that the Patel might be registered in his name.

1891 the Shekdar of Kibbanhatti Sammath
reported to the Amildar of Nipani that the Patel of Hiraskere might, owing to the death of Nanji Gonda, be registered in the name of the said Nanji Gonda's son a boy of 6 or 7 years and that until the boy was ~~[illegible]~~

fit to manage the duties himself, Basavā, son of the younger brother of Chikkē Gowda the 'hissadar' might be ordered to do the duties.

15.4.91 The Amildar ordered the Shekdar to send all the heirs of the deceased Patel for an enquiry.

Subsequent to the date of this order the appellant presents some petitions to the Talukdar and the Dist. authorities regarding his claims.

× of 13.7.91 In his petition he says that his great grandfather, grandfather and father had successively held the Patelki office of Hindaskere; that the said Patelki may be registered either in his name or in the name of his uncle's son Kempe Gowda.

On the 23rd July 1891 the Shekdar sent some of the claimants to be examined by the Amildar and also reports to him that the office might be registered in the name of Chikka son of deceased Rangi Gowda and that Basave Gowda son of Kempe Gowda might be ordered to do the duties.

In the meantime Gowramma wife of deceased Rangi Gowda presents a petition to the Kipture Amildar that 07 16th July 91 the Patelki office might be registered in the name of her son Chikka aged about 9 years and that until the boy was fit
to manage the duties himself her brother in-law Kari Basappa
might be ordered to do the duties.

The Amildar orders
the Shekdar to send Gowramma and Basappa Gowda to be examined
in the matter.

On the 5th August 1891
the appellant presents another petition to the Amr regarding the same matter.

The Amildar
orders the Shekdar 5-8-91 to report as to who had been then doing the Patelki duties and if there had been no one doing the duties to select one of the claimants and submit his name.

On the 20th August
1891 the Shekdar reports that Gowramma wife of Rangi Gowda was dead that of Basappa Gowda

Gonda son of Chikka Gonda was appointed Patel he would be able to manage the duties
efficiently, that the deceased Rangi Gonda's son was yet a young boy and that therefore the Patelki might merely be registered in the name of this boy and that Basava Gonda
son of Chikka Gonda
might for the time being be ordered to do the duties. The Shekdar submitted also a genealogical tree shewing the relationship of the different claimants to the Patelki office.

On the 20th August
1891 the Amildar
issued an order to the Shekdar that pending final orders in the matter the appellant Basava Gonda son of Chikka Gonda (recommend-ed by the Shekdar) might do the Patelki duties.

On the 18th Octr
1891 Thamma Gonda
younger brother of Patel Rangi Gonda
deceased, presents a petition to the Amildar of Tiptur that the

deceased Nanji Gonda's son Bhikha Gonda
was under his protection that the Patel might
be registered in the name of that boy and that he (Khimji Gonda)
be ordered to do the duties for him.

Khimji Gondaya gave his statement before the Amildar of Jiptur on 4-1-92. He states there that Bhikha
Gonda son of deceased Nanji Gonda was under his protection, that the boy was 9 years old,
that deceased Nanji Gonda's wife was also dead, that the Patel office might be registered in the name of the boy and he (Khimji Gonda)
as guardian.

The Amildar therefore upon reports on the 9th February 1892 that it could not be found why ~~a~~ the entries of on the death
Patel Bhikha Gonda's ~~death~~ the office instead of being registered in the name of his son Basave Gowda appellt has been registered in the name of deceased Nanje Gowda, that as desired by Thimme Gowda the office might be registered in the name of Chikka son

of deceased Nanje Gowda
and that the said Thimme Gowda might be ordered to do the duties as gumastha until the boy was found fit to manage the duties.

On the 20th July 1892 the Dy Commr
sanctioned the arrange-

The appeal is against this order of the Dy Commr.

The appellant alleges that his father had been the regd Patel, that owing to some misrepresentations
of deceased Nanje Gowda
he succeeded in getting the office regd in his name that although he (appellt) had been appointed by the Amildar on a full enquiry into the matter the Dy Commr ungently

registered the name of Chikke'gonda son of deceased Nanje'gonda as Patel and appointed Mooniné'gonda to do the duties as gumastha.

The Patel Regis
of 1866-65 produced by the appellt mentions Chikke'gonda as Patel.

The Reg. of 1875-76 produced by the appellt mentions "Patel Chikke'gonda deceased Nanje'gonda son of Nanje'gonda."

The Reg. of 1880-81 also produced by the appellt mentions under the head "Registered Nanje'gonda" under
"His wife's name"
Thimma, Thimma, and under the head "person doing the duty" Nanje'gonda.

The genealogical tree produced by the appellant on the 13th July 1891, mentions Chikke'gonda registered as the "Mûlapurusha" after him Thimme'gonda registered then Basavi' gonda registered then Chikke'gonda registered
and then Basavanna
appellant.

the deceased Nanje gowda (Patel) is here shewn as having been descended ~~from~~ from Chikka gowda son of Chikke gowda the "mula purusha" on the 29th August 1892 the Deputy Comm. was requested in this office docket no 3251/138-92 to submit the records connected with the appointment of Nanje gowda in 1875-76 & also the original Patel Registers of 1864-65, 1875-76 & 1880-81. The Deputy Comm. has sent the original patel Registers called for. The Deputy Comm. states that no other records are forthcoming in the Taluk.

~~The original Registers of this mention just in the same manner with the authenticated copies of Registers produced by the Appellant.~~

Thimme gowda who was appointed by the Deputy Comm. on the 20th February 1892 to act as gumastha had stated in his deposition before the amildar on the 4th January 1892 that he ~~was~~ is the younger brother of deceased Nanje gowda patel. But the genealogical tree shews that he bears no such relation.

BCh
7/12/92

on 12.12.92 the Dy Comm. was again requested to send the original Registers, observing that the previous requisition had not been properly attended to.

The Dy Comm^r now states in reply that although a thorough search was made in the Records neither the original Patel Regs nor any records relating to the appointment of Nanja 'gowda as Patel in 1895-96 were found.

The Dy Comm^r has sent a copy of the Patel Reg^r of Chikkanaikanhalli for 1864 which mentions Chikke 'gowda as Patel of Hindaskere' memo.

The appellant's father Shikke' gon-da has been the patel of Hindiskere' in Nipani taluk. He died in 1874-75. The patel-was afterwards regis-
-ed in the name of one Nanje' gon-da a "dayad" of the deceased.
In 1881 the appellant presented a petition to the taluk authorities that at the time of his father's death he had been very young, that the said Nanje' gon-da
falsely represented to
the authorities that he alone was the heir of the deceased and got the office registered
in his name and that he (the appellant) might therefore be appointed
patel.
The enquiry on cross
was passed that the
registers did not mention the name of the appellant whereas on the other hand Nanji Gonda

has been mentioned
as the son of deceased Chikki Gonda patel.
On the death of the said Nanji Gonda in 1891
the appellant presents
several petitions that the office might be regd
in his name.
Gonamma wife of
deceased Nanji Gonda presents a peti that the office might be registered in the name of her minor son Chikka.
Soon afterwards she dies.
In August 1891 the Amildar appoints
Basavi Gonda appellant who had been recommended by the Shekdar to do the patel duties pending final orders
in the matter.
In October 1891
Thimme Gonda younger brother of deceased Nanji Gonda presents a peti that the office might
be registered in the name of the minor son of deceased Nanji Gonda and that he (Thimme Gonda) might
as his guardian.
Thimme Gonda gave a statement before the Amildar in January 1892 that the minor son of deceased Nanj' Gowda had been under his protection, that the office might be registered in the name of this minor and he (the minor Gowda) appointed Gumastha.

The Amildar reports to the Dy Commr that the office might be regd in the name of that boy and the minor Gowda be appointed Gumastha.

20.2.92. The Deputy Commr sanctioned it.

Basava Gowda now appeals to this office alleging:

That the Amildar on a proper enquiry had appointed him as Patel and that the Dy Commr unjustly registered the office in the name of Chikka the above mentioned minor and appointed Minor Gowda as Gumastha.

The Patel Registr of 1864-65 mentions Chikke Gowda (deceased) as Patel - (Please see margin) *

The Registr of 1875- ~~mentions~~ "Hindaskere Patel Chikke Gowda deceased. Nanj' Gowda son of Nanj' Gowda."

The Registr of 1880-81 mentions the name of Nanj' Gowda

The Deputy Commr was requested in this office docket No. 3251/138-92 of 29.8.92 to submit the original patels Registers of 1864-65, 1875-76 and 1880-81 and the records connected with the appointment of Nanji Gonda in 1875-76.

The Deputy Commr has sent up only Extracts from the original patels Registers called for. He states that no other records are forthcoming in the Taluk.

The Nanji Gonda who was appointed by the Dy Commr on 20.12.92 to act as guardian has stated in his deposition before the Asstt Collr that he was the younger brother of deceased Nanji Gonda Patel.

But the genealogical tree produced by the appellant does not support this statement at all.

7/12/92.

on 12-12-92 the Dy Commr was again requested to send the orig. Registers observing that proper attention had not been paid to the former requisition.

The Dy Commr replies that although a minute & thorough search was made in the records no original Registers were found, nor were found any records relating to the appointment of Nanji Gonda as Patel in 1875-76. 9-1-93

The Affidavit came to the village some time or four days after the abovementioned Raiyat had died. On duly enquiries having been made in the presence of all the parties, concerned as to who is the proper heir to the above said Patelship, and it was found that he was the proper heir, both by the village and by the Copy of the Patels Register.
Saiyan Hadar the Amildar gave him order to duly give the Patelship to the Patel of that village.
Although it was found that he was the proper heir to the deceased patelship the Deputy Commissioner of the District has registered one Ghulam Ali the son of the deceased patel Bhaiji Govind, a boy of only 2 years old, and to this duty by one Shivnegowda a very fit person of that caste till the said boy will be fit for duty.

Therefore the humble petitioner requests that your Honour will kindly take his humble case to consideration and restore to him the patelship of the above said village kindly and favourable to him, as he is the legal heir to the same.
Requests that he has enclosed the genealogical tree, and the Copy of the Register for your Honours kind perusal.

Do.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore

Sir

With reference to your official Memorandum No. 71 of the 23d May 1892 forwarding for report (with record) a petition from Basavé Gowda of Hindisgéré village in the Tiptur Taluk praying for the restoration to him of the Potéli of the village, I have the honor to submit as follow.-

2. On April 1891 Potail Nunjé-gowda of the said Hindisgéré village died leaving a son named Chikka abut 6 or 7 years old. On this the petitioner represented that his father (Chikké Gowda) was the registered Potél of the village and that as he was young when he died in 1875 or thereabouts the recently deceased patel Nunjé Gowda who was a remote cousin of his father pretended that he was his son and got his name registered fraudulently, and prayed that he might now be appointed to the vacant Potaily.

3. The claim of the petitioner could not be investigated and settled in a summary enquiry and so the son of the deceased Patél was registered and his uncle appointed to act for him during his minority.

4 The record of the case and the petition received with your memo under reply are herewith submitted.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your Most Obedient Servant.
